Step 2 – Select “Enterprise Licensing”

The screenshot shows the Goldratt Research Labs website. At the top, the logo "GOLDRATT RESEARCH LABS" is on the left, and navigation links "Who are we?", "Theory of Constraints", "Harmony", "Odyssey", and "Free Downloads" are on the right. The main content area features a hand-drawn diagram of the "HARMONY TOC S&T Expert System". The diagram is a hierarchical tree starting with "1 VIABLE VISION Profitable Growth" at the top. It branches into "2.1 GROWTH Increase Sales" and "2.2 PRODUCTIVITY Reduce Costs". "2.1" further branches into "3.1.1 Reduce inventory and production errors", "3.1.2 Reduce working capital", and "3.1.3 Reduce inventory and production errors". "2.2" branches into "3.2.1 OPERATIONS Reduce working capital" and "3.2.2 PRODUCTIVITY Reduce inventory and production errors". A hand holding a pen is shown pointing at the diagram. Below the diagram, there are two quotes: "It doesn't matter how beautiful your theory is, it doesn't matter how smart you are. If it doesn't agree with experiment, it's wrong" by Richard P. Feynman, and "There is nothing more powerful than an idea whose time has come" by Victor Hugo. A blue button labeled "Click here" is positioned between the quotes. Below the quotes, the word "Licensing" is written in red. Under "Licensing", there is a red-bordered box containing the text "For Enterprise licensing, click here - This is if you want to purchase 3 or more licenses and be eligible for a volume discount." Below this box, there is text for "license renewal" and "Electronic funds transfer confirmation", each with a "click here" link. A blue box in the bottom right corner contains the text "New Theory of Constraints Books".
