The Harmony S&T Expert system will be available on only a monthly subscription basis with discounted options to invest in a 6 monthly or annual user license. Users will be able to download a fully functional 30 day free trial version of Harmony to evaluate whether Harmony can help them meet their objectives for the design, validation and communication of S&T's and or for the Planning and or Execution management of the implementation of their organization's S&T.

As part of Dr. Eli Goldratt and the Goldratt Research Labs commitment to disseminate new knowledge into the public domain, the Harmony S&T viewer will available for free to anyone wishing to view all S&T's build in Harmony including the library of the latest generic S&T's developed and approved for release by Dr. Eli Goldratt.

The Table below lists the single license pricing for the three versions of Harmony.

Step 5 – Online Payment Confirmation

Success!

Thank you for registering your software at Goldratt Research Labs.

Your credit card has been approved. Your Licensing detail will also be mailed to your email address.

As before, to ensure a error free registration, Windows must run Harmony in Admin mode. To achieve this please follow the instructions below:

- If you are running Windows Vista, right-click on the Harmony Icon on your desktop and select "Run as Administrator" to ensure they have the rights to install new applications. Then repeat Registration Procedure below.

- If you are running Windows 7, right-click on the Harmony Icon on your desktop and selecting "Properties" then "Compatibility" and then checking the "Run as Administrator" check box. Then repeat Registration Procedure below.

To register Harmony, simply copy and paste your new Registration code back into the "Registration Code:" field in the Harmony Application Registration Window (accessed via "Harmony/Help/License"), then re-enter your organization name, re-enter email (please make sure you actually re-enter these) and then click on the "Update Info" button after which a new Expiry date will be displayed in the bottom of the Application Registration window. Once you close the Application Registration window, Harmony will open normally (unlocked)

Regards

The Goldratt Team

Step 6 – Receive Email Payment Confirmation

Step 7 – Register HARMONY using your new “Registration Code”

Start your registration process by right-clicking on HARMONY Desktop icon and selecting “Run as Administrator” (this is important to ensure Windows grants Harmony the rights to update Windows Registry with your new Harmony Registration Code)

Once Harmony has opened, go to Help/Licence and copy and paste the “Registration Code” received in your confirmation email into the “Registration code” field. Enter your organization name and email and then click on “Update Info” button after which you should see a new expiry date.

Once you see your new expiry date you have successfully completed the registration process.

Thank you for your investment in HARMONY. If you have any questions or suggestions to improve HARMONY, please contact Dr. Alan Barnard at alan@goldrattresearchlabs.com
